

STRIDENT

Meaning: Strident: characterized by a loud, harsh, and grating quality, often making it difficult to concentrate or engage.

1. The strident tone of the speaker made it difficult for the audience to focus on the content of the presentation.
2. As the argument escalated, their voices became increasingly strident, echoing through the quiet café.
3. The strident sound of the alarm startled everyone in the building, prompting a swift evacuation.
4. Her strident criticism of the policy left no room for opposing viewpoints during the debate.
5. Despite its strident appearance, the metal sculpture was meant to evoke a sense of harmony and balance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strident>