

STRIDULATOR

Meaning: Stridulator: a specialized body part or structure in certain insects, such as crickets, that produces sound through stridulation, typically used for communication or attracting mates.

1. The stridulator of the cricket produces a distinctive sound that attracts mates.
2. Scientists studied the stridulator in various insects to better understand their mating rituals.
3. A stridulator can be found in several species of grasshoppers, creating a rhythmic chirping.
4. The fascinating mechanism of the stridulator allows certain beetles to communicate through vibrations.
5. Observing the stridulator in action provides insight into the complex behaviors of these creatures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stridulator>