

STRIDULOUS

Meaning: Stridulous: producing a harsh or grating sound, often resembling chirping or creaking.

1. The stridulous chirping of the crickets filled the night air with a rhythmic melody.
2. As the wind rustled through the trees, a stridulous sound echoed, reminiscent of distant laughter.
3. The stridulous call of the locusts was a familiar backdrop to their summer evenings.
4. With every movement, the stridulous creaking of the old door added to the eerie atmosphere of the abandoned house.
5. She found the stridulous noise of the synthesizer both intriguing and irritating at the same time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stridulous>