

STRIKING

Meaning: Striking: remarkably impressive or noticeable; attracting attention due to distinctiveness or beauty.

1. The artist's use of color was striking, capturing the viewer's attention immediately.
2. Her striking features made her stand out in the crowd.
3. The landscape was strikingly beautiful, with mountains rising majestically against the sky.
4. He delivered a striking performance that left the audience in awe.
5. The contrast between the bright flowers and the dark soil was truly striking.
6. The artist's use of color was striking, drawing every eye in the gallery.
7. Her striking features captured the attention of everyone at the event.
8. The storm left a striking contrast against the clear blue sky.
9. His performance was strikingly powerful, leaving the audience in awe.
10. The architecture of the building was striking, blending modern and traditional styles seamlessly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/striking>