

STRIP

Meaning: Strip: to remove a covering or layer from a surface.

1. She decided to strip the old paint from the wooden furniture to restore its natural beauty.
2. The magician amazed the audience by making a card suddenly strip away to reveal the selected one.
3. He had to strip off his wet clothes after falling into the lake during the hike.
4. The company plans to strip down their product line to focus on their best-selling items.
5. During the performance, the dancer executed a stunning routine that gradually stripped away layers of her costume.
6. He decided to strip the old paint from the wooden door before refinishing it.
7. The magician performed a stunning trick where he made a woman appear to strip away layers of fabric.
8. As the sun began to set, the sky started to strip away its vibrant colors, leaving a dusky hue.
9. The company plans to strip down its product line to focus on its most popular items.
10. She watched in awe as he began to strip the guitar of its old strings, preparing for a new performance.
11. The artist decided to strip the old paint from the canvas to reveal its original colors.
12. During the summer festival, the children enjoyed a game where they had to strip the bark off sticks.
13. To prepare for the renovation, they needed to strip the wallpaper from the walls of the living room.
14. As part of the performance, the magician made a silk scarf appear to strip away from thin air.
15. He had to strip away his emotional defenses to truly connect with his friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strip>