

STROBILACEOUS

Meaning: Strobilaceous refers to plants that have cone-like structures or features resembling a cone, often associated with certain types of conifers or similar species.

1. The strobilaceous plants in the garden are known for their unique cone-like structures.
2. During our hike, we encountered a strobilaceous species that fascinated the botany students.
3. The professor explained how the strobilaceous features of certain ferns aid in their reproduction.
4. In the forest, we observed a strobilaceous structure that resembled a pine cone.
5. Research into strobilaceous forms can reveal much about plant evolution and adaptation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strobilaceous>