

STROKER

Meaning: Stroker: a person or device that feeds fuel into a furnace or engine, particularly to optimize performance and efficiency.

1. The stoker diligently fed the furnace, ensuring the steam engine ran efficiently.
2. In the world of automotive racing, a skilled stoker can significantly enhance a car's performance.
3. Her experience as a stoker on the ship gave her a unique perspective on life at sea.
4. The stoker's role was crucial in maintaining the ship's speed during the long voyage.
5. He always admired the art of stroking the piano keys with such grace and precision, like a true stroker of melodies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stroker>