

STROOK

Meaning: STROOK (verb): past tense of stroke; to have moved one's hand or an object gently over a surface.

1. She stroked the cat gently, feeling its soft fur beneath her fingers.
2. The artist's brush stroked the canvas with vibrant colors, bringing the scene to life.
3. He stroked the keys of the piano, filling the room with a haunting melody.
4. As she spoke, her hand stroked the arm of her chair, lost in thought.
5. With a confident stroke, the swimmer propelled through the water, cutting through the waves.
6. He strook the ball with such force that it soared over the fence.
7. As the artist strook the canvas with bold colors, a beautiful landscape emerged.
8. She strook the keys of the piano, filling the room with a beautiful melody.
9. After he strook a deal with the supplier, their business flourished significantly.
10. The thunder strook just as they reached the safety of the shelter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strook>