

STROW

Meaning: To strow means to spread or scatter something in a loose, untidy manner.

1. The children began to strow the colorful leaves across the yard in celebration of autumn.
2. As the wind picked up, it caused the petals to strow themselves gently over the grass.
3. She decided to strow the seeds in the garden, hoping for a vibrant display of flowers in spring.
4. The artist chose to strow the sand around the sculpture, adding texture to the exhibit.
5. After the party, they would strow confetti everywhere to create a festive atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strow>