

STROWN

Meaning: STROWN: past participle of strew; scattered or spread about in a disordered manner.

1. The leaves were strown across the pathway, creating a beautiful autumn carpet.
2. After the storm, debris was strown throughout the neighborhood, making it difficult to navigate.
3. Children strown on the grass laughed and played under the warm sun.
4. Books were carelessly strown on the floor, evidence of a long night of study.
5. The artist chose to strown the vibrant colors on the canvas, allowing them to blend naturally.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strown>