

STROY

Meaning: To stroy means to destroy or demolish something completely.

1. The architect's vision was to stroy the old building and replace it with a modern structure.
2. In a moment of rage, he decided to stroy the evidence that could incriminate him.
3. The storm threatened to stroy the fragile homes along the coast.
4. They planned to stroy their competition by launching an unbeatable marketing campaign.
5. It took years to stroy the misconceptions surrounding the ancient artifact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stroy>