

STRUCTURELESS

Meaning: Structureless refers to lacking a defined or organized framework, leading to a disordered or free-form quality.

1. The artist's latest work is a structureless collection of colors and shapes that invites interpretation.
2. In the absence of guidelines, the discussion became structureless and meandered without focus.
3. Her thoughts were structureless, flowing freely without the constraints of formal organization.
4. The landscape appeared almost structureless, with rolling hills blending seamlessly into the sky.
5. His presentation lacked a clear framework, making it feel somewhat structureless and overwhelming for the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/structureless>