

STRUM

Meaning: To strum is to play a stringed instrument, especially a guitar, by sweeping the fingers or a pick across the strings to produce sound.

1. She began to strum her guitar softly, filling the room with gentle melodies.
2. As the sun set, he would often strum chords by the campfire, lost in the music.
3. The musician skillfully strummed the strings, creating a captivating rhythm that drew everyone in.
4. With each strum, the song took on a life of its own, resonating with the audience's emotions.
5. He learned to strum his favorite songs after hours of practice and dedication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strum>