

STRUT

Meaning: STRUT (verb): To walk with a proud, confident gait, often to attract attention.

1. He walked down the street with a confident strut, drawing the attention of everyone around him.
 2. The peacock displayed its vibrant feathers as it began to strut across the garden path.
 3. During the fashion show, the models would strut confidently down the runway to showcase the latest designs.
 4. She couldn't help but strut her stuff at the dance competition, showcasing her impressive skills.
 5. After winning the championship, the athlete had a proud strut as he celebrated with his teammates.
 6. The peacock began to strut around the garden, showcasing its vibrant feathers.
 7. After winning the championship, he couldn't help but strut with confidence down the street.
 8. The actor made a grand entrance, strutting across the stage with an air of authority.
 9. She watched the dog strut proudly with its new collar, clearly enjoying the attention.
 10. In the world of fashion, models often strut down the runway to display the latest trends.
 11. He tried to impress everyone with his confident strut across the stage.
 12. The peacock displayed its vibrant feathers as it began to strut around the garden.
 13. After winning the championship, he walked with a noticeable strut, radiating pride.
 14. She entered the room with a strut that immediately captured everyone's attention.
 15. The athlete's strut was a testament to his hard work and dedication throughout the season.
 16. He walked into the room with a confident strut that caught everyone's attention.
 17. The peacock displayed its vibrant feathers and strutted around the garden with pride.
 18. After winning the championship, she couldn't help but strut around the field, celebrating her success.
 19. The young actor made his debut on stage, strutting with charisma and presence.
 20. As the parade passed by, the marching band strutted in perfect sync, captivating the crowd.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strut>