STUB

Meaning: A stub is a small remaining piece of something that has been partially used or consumed.

1. The carpenter used a stub of wood to complete the repair after running out of supplies.
2. As she flipped through the old journal, a stub of a pencil fell out, revealing her forgotten thoughts.
3. He felt a sharp pain in his ankle after tripping over a stub of metal protruding from the ground.
4. The stub of the movie ticket served as a reminder of the fun night they had together.
5. After the tree was cut down, only a stub remained, marking where it had once stood tall.
6. The carpenter used a stub of wood to fill the gap in the wall.
7. After finishing the project, he realized he had a stub of wire left over.
8. She could barely hold the pencil, as it had been reduced to a tiny stub.
9. The old film reel had a stub of tape that needed to be replaced.
10. He found a stub of a ticket in his pocket, reminding him of the concert.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stub