

STUBBEDNESS

Meaning: Stubbedness refers to a lack of eloquence or difficulty in articulating thoughts and emotions effectively.

1. His stubbedness was evident as he struggled to find the right words during the presentation.
2. The artist's stubbedness in expressing emotions added a unique depth to his work.
3. Despite her stubbedness in navigating social situations, her kindness always shone through.
4. The stubbedness of his responses made it difficult for others to engage in a meaningful dialogue.
5. She admired his stubbedness as it revealed a genuine and unfiltered perspective on life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stubbedness>