

STUBBORN

Meaning: Stubborn: unyielding or obstinately refusing to change one's mind or attitude, even in the face of evidence or persuasion.

1. Her stubborn refusal to admit she was wrong frustrated everyone in the meeting.
2. Despite the evidence against him, he remained stubborn in his beliefs.
3. The puppy was stubborn about learning commands, often ignoring even the tastiest treats.
4. She was known for her stubborn determination to achieve her goals, no matter the obstacles.
5. His stubborn nature made it difficult for him to compromise during negotiations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stubborn>