

STUMBLER

Meaning: A stumbler is a person who frequently trips or loses their footing, especially while walking or hiking.

1. The stumbler tripped over a loose stone and fell into a patch of wildflowers.
2. During the hike, we encountered a stumbler who kept losing his footing on the rocky trail.
3. As a stumbler in the dance class, she felt self-conscious but was determined to improve.
4. The comedian's routine about being a lifelong stumbler had the audience roaring with laughter.
5. Every stumbler has their own unique story of how they navigated life's challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stumbler>