

STUMP

Meaning: Stump (noun): the remaining part of a tree trunk after the main part has been cut down or fallen; (verb) to confuse or baffle someone, leaving them unable to respond or think clearly.

1. The sudden question left him completely stumped, unable to find a suitable answer.
  2. After the storm, the old tree lay on the ground, its massive stump a reminder of its former glory.
  3. She felt like a stumped actor, struggling to remember her lines in the middle of the performance.
  4. As they hiked through the forest, they discovered a carved stump that served as a makeshift seat.
  5. The puzzle was so challenging that it stumped even the most experienced players in the group.
  6. The tree had been cut down, leaving only a large, weathered stump behind.
  7. She was left speechless, completely stumped by the unexpected question.
  8. The children played around the old stump, imagining it as a magical throne.
  9. After hours of brainstorming, they were still stumped on how to solve the puzzle.
  10. He tripped over a hidden stump while hiking through the dense forest.
  11. The sudden question from the audience completely stumped the speaker.
  12. The tree's stump was all that remained after it was cut down last fall.
  13. She found herself stumped when trying to solve the complex puzzle.
  14. After hours of hiking, they decided to rest on a large, moss-covered stump.
  15. His elaborate explanation only served to stump the students further.
  16. The sudden question from the audience left the speaker completely stumped.
  17. After the storm, a large tree stump remained as a reminder of what had been.
  18. She tried to solve the puzzle for hours, but it ultimately stumped her.
  19. The dog ran around the park, joyfully chasing its tail near an old stump.
  20. He felt like he was at a stumping crossroads, unable to choose which path to take.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stump>