

STUN

Meaning: To stun means to shock or astonish someone into a state of temporary disbelief or silence.

1. The magician's final trick managed to stun the audience into silence.
2. News of her unexpected promotion did nothing but stun her colleagues at the office.
3. The breathtaking view from the mountain top never failed to stun visitors.
4. As the car sped by, the sudden noise of the engine left me momentarily stunned.
5. The artist's innovative approach to the traditional medium would stun even the most discerning critics.
6. The magician's final trick was designed to stun the audience into silence.
7. The news of her sudden promotion was enough to stun her coworkers.
8. He was stunned by the breathtaking beauty of the sunset over the ocean.
9. The shocking revelation about the company's finances stunned investors and analysts alike.
10. As the car skidded to a halt, the driver was left stunned by the near miss.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stun>