

STUNK

Meaning: STUNK: past tense of stink; to have emitted a strong, unpleasant odor.

1. The garbage left in the sun all week stunk so badly that we had to cover our noses.
2. After the rain, the wet dog returned home and the entire house stunk of wet fur.
3. He tried to mask the smell of the old fish, but the entire kitchen still stunk.
4. The abandoned building stunk of mildew and decay, making it clear no one had been there for years.
5. When I opened the fridge, a foul odor hit me; it was clear something had gone bad and stunk up the whole kitchen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stunk>