

STUNTED

Meaning: Stunted refers to being hindered or prevented from growing or developing to the full potential, often due to adverse conditions.

1. The child's growth was stunted due to malnutrition during the early years of life.
2. Her emotional development was stunted by a lack of supportive relationships in her childhood.
3. The plant's growth was stunted because it was not receiving enough sunlight.
4. His ambition was stunted by the discouragement he faced from his peers.
5. The economy remained stunted for years after the financial crisis, hindering job creation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stunted>