

STUNTNESS

Meaning: Stuntness refers to the condition of being stunted or hindered in growth or development.

1. His stunted growth was a source of frustration for him, as he longed to be taller like his peers.
2. The stunted plants in the garden were a clear indication of the poor soil quality.
3. Her speech was marked by a certain stuntedness, revealing her anxiety about public speaking.
4. The team's performance showed signs of stuntedness, lacking the energy and creativity they usually displayed.
5. Despite his intelligence, there was a stuntedness in his social skills that made interactions awkward.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stuntness>