

STUPE

Meaning: Stupe (noun): a state of astonishment or shock that leaves one temporarily unable to think or respond clearly.

1. The magician's performance left the audience in a stupe, their mouths agape in astonishment.
2. After the shocking news, I was rendered stupe, unable to grasp what had just happened.
3. The complexity of the puzzle was so great that it left even the brightest minds in a state of stupe.
4. Her unexpected revelation caused a stupe among the gathered friends, as they struggled to comprehend the implications.
5. He stood there in stupe, lost in thought as he tried to piece together the fragmented memories.
6. The old book was filled with stupefying tales that left readers in awe.
7. After hours of studying, she felt a stupe of exhaustion wash over her.
8. His explanation was so convoluted that it left the audience in a state of stupe.
9. The magician's tricks were designed to evoke a sense of stupe and wonder.
10. In the face of such unexpected news, he could only respond with a stupe expression.
11. In the midst of the lecture, the professor's complex theories left many students in a stupe.
12. The sudden news of the unexpected storm plunged the town into a stupe, leaving residents unsure of what to do next.
13. After binge-watching the entire series in one night, I felt a stupe settle over me as I tried to process the plot twists.
14. The magician's final trick was so astonishing that the audience fell into a stupe, unable to comprehend what they had just witnessed.
15. For a moment, I stood in stupe, grappling with the reality of the shocking announcement.