

STUPEFACTIVE

Meaning: Stupefactively: in a manner that causes astonishment or amazement, often due to brilliance or complexity.

1. The magician's performance was so stupefactively brilliant that the audience was left in a state of awe.
2. Her stupefactively complex argument left even the most seasoned debaters speechless.
3. The stupefactively beautiful landscape took my breath away as we hiked through the national park.
4. He delivered a stupefactively humorous speech that had everyone in the room laughing uncontrollably.
5. The documentary presented stupefactively shocking revelations about the impact of climate change on our planet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stupefactive>