

STUPEFIEDNESS

Meaning: Stupefiedness refers to a state of being stunned or astonished, often characterized by a lack of mental clarity or awareness due to surprise or shock.

1. The stupefiedness of the audience was palpable as they absorbed the unexpected twist in the plot.
2. Her face reflected a mix of astonishment and stupefiedness when she received the shocking news.
3. In moments of great surprise, it's common to experience a brief sense of stupefiedness before reacting.
4. The scientist stood in stupefiedness, unable to comprehend the implications of the groundbreaking discovery.
5. His stupefiedness in the face of such overwhelming beauty left him momentarily speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stupefiedness>