

STURTION

Meaning: Sturtion (noun): The act or process of becoming unstable or deteriorating, often leading to visible changes or collapse.

1. The sturtion of the old bridge made it a popular spot for photographers.
2. As the storm approached, the sturtion of the trees became increasingly evident.
3. In the quiet of the forest, the sturtion of the leaves created a soothing melody.
4. The artist captured the sturtion of the waves crashing against the shore.
5. During the hike, we marveled at the sturtion of the mountains in the distance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sturtion>