

STYPTIC

Meaning: STYPTIC (adjective): having the property to constrict tissues or blood vessels and stop bleeding.

1. The stypic powder effectively stopped the bleeding from the small cut on her finger.
2. In ancient medicine, a stypic agent was often used to treat wounds and prevent excessive blood loss.
3. After the accident, the paramedic applied a stypic solution to the patient's laceration to control the hemorrhage.
4. Her first aid kit included a stypic pencil, which is useful for minor shaving nicks.
5. The herbalist recommended a stypic herb to help with his father's chronic nosebleeds.
6. The stypic powder effectively stopped the bleeding from the cut on his arm.
7. In ancient medicine, many herbal remedies were used for their styptic properties.
8. After the minor surgery, the doctor applied a styptic solution to ensure proper clotting.
9. Herbalists often recommend using styptic agents for treating small wounds and abrasions.
10. He was grateful for the styptic pencil after accidentally nicking himself while shaving.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/styptic>