

SUB

Meaning: Sub (noun): A sandwich made with a long roll filled with various ingredients, or (verb) to replace one player with another in a game.

1. The chef decided to create a new sub featuring spicy salami and fresh vegetables.
2. During the game, the coach made the decision to sub in a younger player for added energy.
3. She ordered a footlong sub with extra cheese and all the toppings from her favorite deli.
4. After realizing his mistake, he quickly tried to sub out the incorrect answer before the deadline.
5. The team was excited to see their star player sub back into the match after recovering from an injury.
6. The chef decided to create a new sub that featured spicy chicken and fresh vegetables.
7. After a long day of hiking, they enjoyed a delicious sub filled with turkey and avocado.
8. He ordered a meatball sub, which was smothered in marinara sauce and melted cheese.
9. The local deli is famous for its foot-long subs, each one packed with unique flavors.
10. She took a bite of her sub and was instantly reminded of summer picnics with her family.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sub>