

SUBARCTIC

Meaning: Subarctic refers to the region or climate located just south of the Arctic, characterized by cold temperatures and distinct seasonal variations, influencing both wildlife and human habitation.

1. The subarctic climate presents unique challenges for wildlife adaptation.
2. Many indigenous communities have thrived in subarctic regions for centuries.
3. The flora in subarctic areas is often limited to hardy species that can withstand extreme temperatures.
4. Researchers are studying the effects of climate change on subarctic ecosystems.
5. The subarctic tundra is known for its vast, open landscapes and permafrost.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subarctic>