

SUBCONTRACTED

Meaning: SUBCONTRACTED: (verb) assigned specific tasks or services to another company or individual, typically to leverage specialized skills or manage workload.

1. The construction company subcontracted the electrical work to a specialized firm.
2. Due to the project's scale, the team decided to have certain tasks subcontracted to local experts.
3. They subcontracted the software development to ensure the project met its tight deadlines.
4. In an effort to cut costs, the firm subcontracted several of its routine maintenance tasks.
5. The event organizer subcontracted catering services to provide a diverse menu for guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subcontracted>