

SUBCONTRACTOR

Meaning: A subcontractor is a person or company hired by a general contractor to perform specific tasks or services as part of a larger project.

1. The general contractor decided to hire a subcontractor to handle the electrical work on the project.
2. To ensure quality and efficiency, the company engaged a trusted subcontractor for the plumbing installation.
3. The subcontractor met all the deadlines, allowing the main project to stay on schedule.
4. During the meeting, the subcontractor discussed potential challenges they might face during construction.
5. The client was impressed by the quality of work delivered by the subcontractor on the renovation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subcontractor>