

SUBCUTICULAR

Meaning: Subcuticular refers to the layer of tissue just beneath the skin surface, often involved in surgical procedures or studies related to skin healing.

1. The surgeon made a subcuticular stitch to minimize scarring after the procedure.
2. In the study, the researchers focused on the subcuticular layer of skin to better understand its healing properties.
3. Subcuticular sutures are often preferred for their cosmetic benefits in certain surgical procedures.
4. The injection was administered in the subcuticular tissue to ensure a more localized effect.
5. After the incision was closed with subcuticular stitches, the patient was advised on proper wound care.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subcuticular>