

SUBDIVERSIFY

Meaning: Subdiversify: to further diversify investments by spreading them across additional sectors or asset classes to reduce risk.

1. To mitigate risks, the company decided to subdiversify its investments across multiple sectors.
2. The financial advisor recommended that we sub-diversify our portfolio to enhance its resilience against market fluctuations.
3. In the recent strategy meeting, the team agreed that it was essential to sub-diversify their holdings in order to achieve better long-term growth.
4. By choosing to sub-diversify, the organization aimed to protect itself from potential downturns in any single industry.
5. Investors are increasingly recognizing the need to sub-diversify as a way to secure their assets against unforeseen economic changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subdiversify>