

SUBDIVIDE

Meaning: To subdivide means to divide something into smaller parts or sections.

1. The architect decided to subdivide the large lot into smaller parcels for development.
2. In order to make the project more manageable, we will subdivide the tasks among the team members.
3. The council approved the plan to subdivide the existing farmland into residential lots.
4. To improve organization, she chose to subdivide her notes by topic and date.
5. They plan to subdivide the family estate to ensure each sibling receives an equal share.
6. The landowner decided to subdivide the large plot into smaller lots for residential development.
7. As the project progressed, the architect suggested ways to subdivide the space more efficiently.
8. In order to create a more organized workflow, the team chose to subdivide their tasks among different members.
9. The town council approved the plan to subdivide the park area for recreational activities and community events.
10. To improve understanding of the complex topic, the teacher will subdivide the lesson into manageable sections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subdivide>