

SUBITO

Meaning: Subito (adverb): suddenly or abruptly; used to indicate a swift change in dynamics or circumstances.

1. The musician played the final note and then transitioned to a subito piano, filling the room with a delicate silence.
2. In the middle of the conversation, she interrupted him with a subito, unexpected revelation that caught everyone off guard.
3. The storm arrived subito, transforming the calm afternoon into a chaotic scene of wind and rain.
4. He made a subito decision to change careers, driven by a newfound passion for art.
5. The lights dimmed subito, signaling the start of the much-anticipated performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subito>