

SUBLATION

Meaning: Sublation is the process of resolving contradictions in a way that transcends and preserves their essential elements, often associated with the evolution of thought in Hegelian philosophy.

1. The philosopher argued that sublation was necessary for the evolution of thought.
2. In Hegelian dialectics, sublation represents the process of overcoming contradictions while preserving their essence.
3. The artist's work achieved a sublation of traditional forms and contemporary themes.
4. Through the sublation of past experiences, she was able to forge a new identity.
5. Their debate resulted in a sublation of ideas that enriched both perspectives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sublation>