

SUBLIMED

Meaning: 'SUBLIMED' refers to the process of a substance transitioning directly from a solid to a gas without passing through a liquid state, often used in the context of purification or phase changes.

1. The scientist sublimed the solid compound to purify it for the experiment.
2. During the heating process, the ice sublimed into vapor without becoming liquid.
3. The artist's vision sublimed into a breathtaking masterpiece that captivated all who saw it.
4. In the laboratory, the chemist observed how the dry ice sublimed rapidly under room temperature.
5. Her emotions sublimed into a sense of serenity as she watched the sunset over the ocean.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sublimed>