

SUBLITION

Meaning: Sublition refers to the process of elevating or transforming something from a lower state to a higher or more refined state, often in the context of consciousness or artistic expression.

1. The philosopher argued that sublition is a necessary process in achieving higher states of consciousness.
2. In her art, the sublition of mundane objects transformed them into something extraordinary.
3. The scientist explained how sublition occurs when matter transitions directly from solid to gas without becoming liquid.
4. Through meditation, she experienced a profound sense of sublition that elevated her spirit.
5. His poetry often hints at the sublition of pain into beauty, reflecting his personal struggles.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sublition>