

SUBMERGE

Meaning: To submerge means to place or sink something completely under a liquid or to be fully immersed in it.

1. The diver decided to submerge himself in the crystal-clear waters to explore the underwater reef.
2. As the rain continued to pour, the river began to rise and threaten to submerge the nearby fields.
3. To create a more immersive experience, the artist chose to submerge the audience in a world of sound and light.
4. The ancient shipwreck was found submerged beneath layers of sand and coral, revealing its forgotten history.
5. In order to achieve a deep relaxation, she would often submerge herself in a warm bath after a long day.
6. The diver decided to submerge himself into the clear, blue waters to explore the coral reef.
7. As the storm approached, the small boat began to submerge beneath the rising waves.
8. To soak the seeds thoroughly, you should submerge them in water for several hours.
9. The artist used a unique technique to submerge the canvas in layers of vibrant paint.
10. During the experiment, we watched the object slowly submerge in the liquid, revealing its true properties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/submerge>