

SUBMINISTRATION

Meaning: Subministration refers to the act of managing or administering resources or services to support a specific objective or need.

1. Subministration of resources is crucial for the success of any large-scale project.
2. The committee focused on the subministration of services to ensure that all community needs were met.
3. Effective subministration can lead to improved efficiency in managing public funds.
4. Her role in the subministration of the charity's activities was pivotal in achieving their goals.
5. The team emphasized the importance of subministration in fostering collaboration among departments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subministration>