

SUBMISSION

Meaning: Submission refers to the act of presenting something for consideration or approval, such as artwork or a formal document.

1. The artist's submission to the gallery was met with enthusiasm from the curators.
2. In a surprising move, the athlete decided to submit his resignation after the championship.
3. Her submission to the committee outlined several innovative ideas for the project.
4. After much deliberation, he finally accepted his defeat with grace and submission.
5. The team worked late into the night to finalize their submission for the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/submission>