

SUBOCULAR

Meaning: Subocular refers to the area located beneath the eyes, particularly in relation to the anatomical features that influence visual capabilities and behavior in certain animals.

1. The subocular region of the fish is crucial for understanding its visual capabilities.
2. In the study of amphibian anatomy, the subocular positioning significantly affects their predatory behavior.
3. Researchers noted that the subocular scales of the reptile provided both protection and sensory function.
4. The subocular muscles play a vital role in the movement and stability of the animal's eyes.
5. During the examination, the biologist discovered an unusual pattern in the subocular area of the specimen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subocular>