

SUBRECTOR

Meaning: SUBRECTOR: A deputy or assistant to the rector, typically involved in administrative responsibilities within a university or academic institution.

1. The subrector of the university announced a new scholarship program for incoming students.
2. During the meeting, the subrector emphasized the importance of community engagement in academic research.
3. The subrector's role includes overseeing faculty affairs and ensuring adherence to university policies.
4. With a background in administration, the new subrector quickly gained the trust of both students and faculty.
5. As the subrector, she played a crucial part in developing the institution's strategic vision for the next decade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subrector>