

SUBREPTIVE

Meaning: Subreptive: characterized by stealth or secrecy, often implying deceit or hidden motives.

1. The subreptive nature of his actions left everyone questioning his true intentions.
2. She felt a subreptive anxiety creeping in as she prepared for the unexpected meeting.
3. The journalist's subreptive tactics raised ethical concerns among her colleagues.
4. In a subreptively clever way, the author wove hidden messages into the narrative.
5. His subreptive charm made it difficult for anyone to see through his facade.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subreptive>