

SUBSIDIARY

Meaning: A subsidiary is a company that is controlled by a parent company, often operating as a separate entity.

1. The company operates several subsidiary branches across the globe.
2. Her role at the subsidiary involves overseeing daily operations and reporting to the parent company.
3. After the merger, the subsidiary gained access to new markets and resources.
4. Investors are optimistic about the subsidiary's potential for growth in the coming years.
5. The subsidiary was established to focus on innovative technology solutions.
6. The company expanded its reach by acquiring a subsidiary in Europe.
7. She works for a subsidiary that specializes in renewable energy solutions.
8. The subsidiary was established to focus on the emerging market of electric vehicles.
9. After the merger, the subsidiary maintained its own brand identity and operations.
10. Investors were pleased to see the subsidiary turn a profit for the first time this year.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subsidiary>