

SUBSIGNATION

Meaning: Subsignation refers to the act of signing a document or agreement to indicate consent or approval by all parties involved.

1. The legal document required the subsignation of all the partners involved in the agreement.
2. During the ceremony, the subsignation of the treaty was witnessed by representatives from multiple nations.
3. In the manuscript, the author's subsignation added a personal touch to the otherwise formal text.
4. The subsignation process was meticulously documented to ensure authenticity and accountability.
5. He carefully reviewed the terms before providing his subsignation on the contract.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subsignation>