

SUBSTANCE

Meaning: Substance refers to a particular kind of matter with uniform properties in a scientific context or the essential nature or essence of something in a philosophical context.

1. The scientist was excited to discover a new substance that could revolutionize energy storage.
2. In philosophy, the concept of substance often refers to the essence of what something truly is.
3. The artist used a variety of substances to create texture in her painting, blending oil and acrylic.
4. During the trial, the prosecution presented evidence that the substance found at the scene was illegal.
5. The teacher explained that all matter is made up of substances, each with unique properties and behaviors.
6. The scientist was eager to identify the unknown substance found in the ancient ruins.
7. In philosophy, the concept of substance often refers to the fundamental essence of things.
8. The new material proved to be a lightweight yet durable substance suitable for construction.
9. His argument lacked substance, failing to provide any compelling evidence to support his claims.
10. The artist used a variety of substances to create texture and depth in her paintings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substance>