

SUBSTANTIALIZE

Meaning: To substantiate means to make something real or tangible by providing concrete evidence, materials, or form.

1. The architect aimed to substantiate her vision by incorporating sustainable materials into the design.
2. In order to substantiate his theory, he needed to provide concrete evidence and case studies.
3. The artist sought to substantiate her ideas through a series of immersive installations.
4. It is vital to substantiate abstract concepts for them to be understood by a broader audience.
5. They worked tirelessly to substantiate their dreams of creating a community garden in the urban landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substantiate>