

SUBSTANTIALLY

Meaning: SUBSTANTIALLY: to a great or significant extent; considerably.

1. The new policy will substantially improve working conditions for all employees.
2. Her performance in the competition was substantially better than last year.
3. The company's profits have increased substantially due to the new marketing strategy.
4. Substantially, the community has benefited from the recent investment in local infrastructure.
5. The findings of the study suggest that climate change will substantially impact global agriculture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substantially>